

With 30 years' experience in telecommunications, datacentre and cloud managed services, Rob Coupland is appointed as CEO

With over 20 years of industry experience and expertise in building and leading successful multi-disciplinary teams, Marion Stewart is appointed as COO

Appoints Niclas Sanfridsson as CEO, and Brad Petzer as CFO

Launches AMP, a new hybrid cloud solution set developed in collaboration with Microsoft

Becomes Cyber Essentials certifying body

Finishes construction of South Gyle datacentre site in Edinburgh, making it the largest commercial datacentre in Scotland

Secures a place on the Scottish Government hosting services platform

Refinanced by Oak Hill Capital Partners

Partners with LINX to host IXScotland, Scotland's first internet exchange

Achieves CSA Star accreditation for cloud security

Wins Green IT Award

Completes £1.8m upgrade to Croydon datacentre

Ranks 35th in the Sunday Times Hiscox Tech Track 100

Joins HP CloudAgile Partner Programme

Expands Milton Keynes datacentre

Awarded Royal Warrant for providing hosted IT and datacentre services to the Royal Household

Business rebrands to Pulsant

Pulsant appoints Pieter Knook and Rob Davies to Board

Lumison opens datacentre in Croydon, South London

EdNet rebrands as Lumison

Builds its first tier 3 datacentre at Newbridge

Graeme Mackenzie joins the board

EdNet launches business broadband services

EdNet becomes the UK's first provider of SDSL services

EdNet established by Aydin Kurt-Elli

2019

2018

2017

2016

2015

2014

2013

2012

2011

2010

2009

2008

2007

2006

2005

2004

2003

2002

2001

2000

1999

1998

1997

1996

1995

1994